IIC Australian Chapter Membership

Membership is open to expert advisory firms and representatives like industry groups supporting Australia's digital ecosystem.

OUR HISTORY & PURPOSE

The IIC is the only independent international forum that brings together national regulators, competition authorities, global commercial operators and end-user representatives in a collegiate, neutral environment to debate policy issues.

The Australian Chapter is intent on facilitating informed Australian choices in the face of these global realities.

BENEFITS OF IIC MEMBERSHIP

Insight: Opportunities to Learn and Educate

The IIC is the only independent international forum where regulators, competition authorities, industry leaders, and end-user groups meet in a neutral setting to debate policy and exchange ideas.

Exchange: Good Practice and Ideas

The IIC's vision is a world where ICTs and the wider digital ecosystem are a positive driver of fair progress for people, the environment, the economy and cultures.

Impact: Opportunities to Build Trusted Relationships

IIC members enjoy a unique opportunity to contribute to the debate on the central policy issues of today and in the future.

Networking: Connect with Peers at Local and International Events

IIC events provide the opportunity to meet and mingle with senior decision makers in academia, regulation, government and digital media and communications companies.

AUSTRALIAN ACTIVITIES

The IIC Australian Chapter holds events in Sydney, Melbourne, and Canberra.

IIC CHAPTERS

IIC Chapters play a vital role for the IIC, they are an extension of the IIC (and its mission) and provide an important function with the engagement of members by offering a domestic programme of meetings and events.

The Chapter programme allows for discussion about local or regional insights, issues, distinctions to global challenges and international comparatives.
